Geese on the Loose — by John & Leslie Wait

Well, here we are in February and winter is still in the air, something that we are not entirely use to in Vancouver. Unfortunately, the weather affected the Motorcycle show, as the attendance was down from last year. I know I'm done with the cold and snow; I want a nice sunny day to go for a ride.

For those of you who know us, we ride an Arctic White 1800... and I sure liked the Pearl White on display at the show! I only purchased a few things at the show, but not the new wing ... sigh. However, I've decided to upgrade my suspension with the Traxxion system at the end of this month (see last month). I'll let you know how it goes.

The BBQ and Silent Auction was a great success! Lot of goods things for sale ... and some clever last minute pencil circling surprised a few individuals. A big "thank you" to Kelly Parkes for purchasing the food, and setting off the canon; Gary ...for barbequing; the ...Yacht Club for donating the facility; and everyone else for donating auction items and attending the fundraiser.

The 50/50 was won by Dan and Valerie and they are off to Las Vegas this week to turn their winnings into big things.

I hope everyone had as much fun as Leslie and I did.

It seems that "Congratulations" are in order for Con...and Pat... from the Surrey Chapter. They will be married on May 24, 2008 and we're sure they'll have 'many, many' happy years of riding!

Riding season will be here soon, so I encourage everyone to participate in some of the upcoming Rider Education events to get ready for the new season.

Safe Riding, John & Leslie

Who says today's kids aren't smart?

Well, some of them are!! At a high school in North Dakota a group of high schoolers played a prank on the school. They let three goats loose in the school.

Before they let them go they painted numbers on the sides of the goats: 1,2,4.

School administrators spent most of the day looking for #3. Gord McDonald Vancouver BC

An old, tired-looking dog wandered into the yard. I could tell from his collar and well-fed belly that he had a home.

He followed me into the house, down the hall, and fell asleep in a corner. An hour later, he went to the door, and I let him out.

The next day he was back, resumed his position in the hall, and slept for an hour. This continued for several weeks.

Curious, I pinned a note to his collar: "Every afternoon your dog comes to my house for a nap."

The next day he arrived with a different note pinned to his collar:

"He lives in a home with ten children -- he's trying to catch up on his sleep. Can I come with him tomorrow?"

After pulling out my own number at the breakfast member's draw last month, I decided that a fitting article of thanks should surely be a quote from Robert Burns on this January 25th his birthday (1759 - 1796).

To A Haggis

Fair fa' your honest, sonsie face,
 Great Chieftain o' the Puddin-pace!
 Aboon them a' ye tak your place,
 Painch, tripe, or thairm;
 Weel are ye wordy of a grace
 As lang's my arm.

(the first verse of eight, some members may know the rest!)
www.rabbie-burns.com for more info.

The Sparrows actually enjoy Haggis but once a year, including the 1oz. toasts (to help smooth out the recitation of the eight verses), served with roast beef, potatoes and champit neeps (mashed turnips). Usually, followed by a Drambuie Cream Trifle. A fair celebration for a Scots Poet with an eye for the lasses. Enough said! It'll soon be time to ride.

Thanks again for all the GWRRA fun. Mairi Sparrow

Blonde & Winter in Canada

As a trucker stops for a red light, a blonde catches up. She jumps out of her car, runs up to his truck, and knocks on the door.

The trucker lowers the window, and she says 'Hi, my name is Heather and you are losing some of your load.' The trucker ignores her and proceeds down the street.

When the truck stops for another red light, the girl catches up again. She jumps out of her car, runs up and knocks on the door.

Again, the trucker lowers the window. As if they've never spoken, the blonde says brightly, 'Hi my name is Heather, and you are losing some of your load!'

Shaking his head, the trucker ignores her again and continues down the street. At the third red light, the same thing happens again..

All out of breath , the blonde gets out of her car, runs up, knocks on the truck door. The trucker lowers the window. Again she says 'Hi, my name is Heather, and you are losing some of your load.'

When the light turns green the trucker revs up and races to the next light. When he stops this time, he hurriedly gets out of the truck, and runs back to the blonde. He knocks on her window, and as she lowers it, he says...

'Hi, my name is Kevin, its winter in WINNIPEG and I'm driving the Sanding TRUCK!

If you remember the Original Hollywood Squares and its comics, this may bring a tear to your eyes. These great questions and answers are from the days when "Hollywood Squares" game show responses were spontaneous and clever not scripted and (often) dull, as they are now. Peter Marshall was the host asking the questions, of course.

Q Do female frogs croak?

A Paul Lynde: If you hold their little heads under water long enough.

Q If you're going to make a parachute jump, at least how high should you be?

A Charley Weaver: 3 days of steady drinking should do it.

Q True or False, a pea can last as long as 5,000 years.

A George Gobel: Boy, it sure seems that way sometimes.

Q You've been having trouble going to sleep. Are you probably a man or a woman?

A Don Knotts: That's what's been keeping me awake.

Q According to Cosmopolitan, if you meet a stranger at a party and you think that he is attractive, is it okay to come out and ask him if he's married? A Rose Marie: No; wait until morning.

Q Paul, why do Hell's Angels wear leather? Next Column>>>

A Paul Lynde: Because chiffon wrinkles too easily.

Q In Hawaiian, does it take more than three words to say "I Love You"?

A Vincent Price: No, you can say it with a pineapple and a $20.

Q What are "Do It," "I Can Help," and "I Can't Get Enough"?

A George Gobel: I don't know, but it's coming from the next apartment.

Q As you grow older, do you tend to gesture more or less with your hands while talking?

A Rose Marie: You ask me one more growing old question Peter, and I'll give you a gesture you'll never forget.

Q Charley, you've just decided to grow strawberries. Are you going to get any during the first year?

A Charley Weaver: Of course not, I'm too busy growing strawberries.

Q In bowling, what's a perfect score?

A Rose Marie: Ralph, the pin boy.

Q It is considered in bad taste to discuss two subjects at nudist camps. One is politics, what is the other?

A Paul Lynde: Tape measures.

Q During a tornado, are you safer in the bedroom or in the closet?

A Rose Marie: Unfortunately, I'm always safe in the bedroom.

Q Can boys join the Camp Fire Girls?

A Marty Allen: Only after lights out.

Q When you pat a dog on its head he will wag his tail. What will a goose do?

A Paul Lynde: Make him bark?

Q If you were pregnant for 2 years, what would you give birth to?

A Paul Lynde: Whatever it is, it would never be afraid of the dark.

Q According to Ann Landers, is there anything wrong with getting into the habit of kissing a lot of people?

A Charley Weaver: It got me out of the army.

Q It is the most abused and neglected part of your body, what is it?

A Paul Lynde: Mine may be abused, but it certainly isn't neglected.

Q Who stays pregnant for a longer period of time, your wife or your elephant?

A Paul Lynde: Who told you about my elephant?

Q When a couple have a baby, who is responsible for its sex?

A Charley Weaver: I'll lend him the car, the rest is up to him.

Q Jackie Gleason recently revealed that he firmly believes in them and has actually seen them on at least two occasions. What are they?

A Charley Weaver: His feet.

Q According to Ann Landers, what are two things you should never do in bed? A - Paul Lynde: Point and laugh.

Hi Dan,

This reply from a co-rider, aka the smiling passenger on the back! lol

Since space is at a premium on our Wing, when I pack our liquid refreshments, I re-use my empty 946ml gatorade bottles, fill them with ice then fill up with pure juice — one btl per person. If I take gatorade, I freeze it the night before the ride. This will also serve as my ice pack in the cooler bag, too! I usually pack 6litres of fluids for Dave & I. One each of Water, juice & gatorade.

Dehydration on the bike is amazing!

Cheers, Laura

ps Don't forget your personal information package on your bike, too. Emergency contact info. Medical & prescription info.

Cheers! Dave & Laura

As I approach an intersection, I always look both ways and never assume that the coast is clear. Always listen to the sound of the engine, trying to hear if there is a different sound than normal.

Editors Note: I look left then right and just before I go I usually look left again. That's because the vehicles on your left are usually the closest to you and someone may have popped up while you were looking to the right.
